

Asbury Automotive Group's Wendy Reynolds-Dobbs is Recognized as an Automotive News Champion of Diversity

October 31, 2024

DULUTH, Ga.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Oct. 31, 2024-- Asbury Automotive Group, Inc. (NYSE: ABG), one of the largest automotive retail and service companies in the U.S., is proud to announce Wendy Reynolds-Dobbs, VP and Chief DEI Officer, has been named a 2024 Automotive News Champion of Diversity. The 2024 class of Champions of Diversity was chosen by Automotive News editors and journalists from scores of nominees. Profiles of this fourth class of Champions of Diversity are available at <https://www.autonews.com/awards/notable-champions-of-diversity/2024/>.

For the fourth year, the Champions of Diversity in Automotive program has recognized individuals who uphold and advocate for diversity, equity, and inclusion (DEI) in the automotive industry.

Wendy has 15 years of public company experience leading business-aligned strategic initiatives in DEI, Environmental, Social, and Governance (ESG), organization effectiveness, talent management, employee engagement, workforce planning and analysis, and leadership/executive development. She leads all aspects of DEI and learning and development, including leadership development and community engagement across Asbury. Wendy also is the catalyst for Asbury's HBCU Change initiative, DEI newsletter "Mosaic," Asbury Center for Learning, amongst many additional programs.

"Wendy has done a tremendous job building and delivering Asbury's business-aligned, data-driven, DEI strategy, team member career growth planning, and community partnerships," David Hult, Asbury's President & CEO. "She is extremely deserving of this recognition, and I am eager to see the impact she continues to make on her journey with Asbury."
