

Asbury Automotive Group Unveils New Sandy Springs Dealership Support Center with Grand Opening Ribbon Cutting Ceremony

April 7, 2026

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 7, 2026-- Asbury Automotive Group, Inc. (NYSE: ABG) (the "Company"), one of the largest automotive retail and service companies in the United States, today celebrated the grand opening of the Company's state-of-the-art Dealership Support Center.

Renovation on the new Dealership Support Center, located at 6655 Peachtree Dunwoody Road, in the heart of Sandy Springs, began in 2025 with corporate team members working from the building as early as November 2025. The renovated property offers modern workspaces that support both collaboration and focused work, as well as wellness rooms and an arcade-style game room. Additionally, the Dealership Support Center features an on-site café for employees and visitors to enjoy and an updated interior design, reflecting Asbury's mission, vision, and values.

"We are proud to call Sandy Springs our corporate home," said David Hult, Asbury president & CEO. "This transition marks a significant milestone for our team, and the ideal location of Sandy Springs provides convenient access to a vibrant community with world-class restaurants, entertainment, and community. We look forward to our next chapter here."

"We are delighted to welcome Asbury Automotive Group to Sandy Springs," said Mayor Rusty Paul. "Asbury will bring 350 new jobs to our City, representing a tremendous investment in both our people and our local economy."

Conveniently located in Atlanta's Central Perimeter, Sandy Springs is home to many Fortune 1000 companies. Among the largest corporate employers are United Parcel Service, Smurfit WestRock, Veritiv Corp., Newell Brands Inc., Intercontinental Exchange/NYSE, Cox Communications, Inspire Brands, Mercedes Benz USA, and now, Asbury Automotive Group.

Choate Construction, the original General Contractor on the building, was the General Contractor for the Dealership Support Center renovation. Praxis3 provided architecture and design services.
